

A Hymn of Salvation

S     A year passed from that
A     day at that megachurch
V     “I saved her, let me save you”
E     In that cheesy infomercial voice

Chorus:
I’ll Save YOU!
Come To Believe Only Ministries

M     Selling me his service:
E     I’m not in the market for religion

S     Grandpa shopped around, he didn’t like that infomercial voice
A     He bought and returned a lot
V     “I need saving, Dave, but it’s not for sale”
E     In that hollow fallen voice

M     Giving me that wisdom
E     I couldn’t afford to buy

S Now he’s sick too
A and that megachurch
V advertises the promise of savings, just like his wife.
E the bargain of his lifetime

M They sell their theology like old paint

E Pastors Promising Pallid Peace

[Refrain]

I'll Save You

Come to Believe Only Ministries

S The family falls from faith

A and he's none the wiser

V they keep the charts, the results, the truth from him

E and take him to church to buy his soul

H They sell him scripture, verses, even a chorus

I and all for the low price of his final Sunday morning

M with a strict "No Return" policy

Amen
